

New York, May 3, 1847

Dear Brother Phelps,

30

I rec^d your note dated Memphis & had previously read your letter to Mr Whiting. It is pleasant to see your own clear handwriting again & have letters penned in your native land. We rejoice that you have been known to return. & decision to go to N. O. & Cincinnati first.
I come here till June is very judicious. I feared you would press on to attend the anniversary, & tho' it would have been quite agreed to have you here yet you would have suffered by prematurely exposing yourself to the cold air here. This morning my family were compulsorily scared around a moderate fire!

We are making preparations
to have a good anniversary & a breakfast
the next morning. Mr Hale lets the Lecture Room of the Tabernacle for the breakfast. Messrs
Ward, Gamut, Patton, Leavitt &c will speak

Adieu

We shall all be glad to take you by the hand once more.

L. T.

London, 18th July 1841

Dear Mr. Stirling

I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am at present in the country and cannot write you more fully at present. I shall be in London again in a few days and will then write you more fully.

I am very sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be better. I am at present in the country and cannot write you more fully at present. I shall be in London again in a few days and will then write you more fully.

I am very sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be better. I am at present in the country and cannot write you more fully at present. I shall be in London again in a few days and will then write you more fully.

I am very sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be better. I am at present in the country and cannot write you more fully at present. I shall be in London again in a few days and will then write you more fully.